Letter from Daisy

Dear Fellow Members,

It is with much regret the time has come for me to discontinue as a member on a personal level. I enjoyed the involvement shared together.

When we first began, we did not in visage ican being so successful. We, only six of us hoped. Thank goodness those hopes became reality.

I wish you all well, leaving with the knowledge that ican and its members will succeed.

Most Sincerely

Daisy M Huckel

Digital Photographs of Members works to go on the ican website

1. Trained members needed to take digital Photographs

I have booked the Clifton school of arts to take some photos of our works

Dates: Sat 23rd then Fri 29th Sat 30th August

If you think you could be available for 5 hours on one of those days, even if you replied to the last email, please let me know.

I aim to have as many works as possible delivered each of the 2 days and good photos taken that can go on the ican website.

If you are one of the people who did some training before and learned how to use the camera and lap top you are especially invited to apply to be part of the recording team. If you think you have the necessary training then you are welcome to apply.

I will only take between 3 - 5 people each day depending on how much work we get.

If we can get it done in the first day that will be good. If not we will use the next 2 days you will be paid and fed for the days you work there. The cost is not yet decided definitely. These images are to be added to your profile on the ican website.

There is funding to pay you to do this work. Depends on how many members apply but I'm hoping to pay members $100 for a day's work as we applied for in the grant.

2. Getting images of your works on the ican website Delivering works to be photographed

You are invited to bring your works to Clifton school of arts on the above dates. 3 works per person only please; could be more for Jewellery, but we may put a few in the 1 image. I hope that we can arrange for people to share the driving to deliver works to Clifton, or bring them on the Train or Greens Bus that stops at the door.

We may get all the images done on the first day please reply ASAP so I can let Kathleen know if we want the gallery.

I've had to cancel Friday as I have picked up work on that day. Sorry if this causes any Problems, but I cannot let paid work go

Coming Events

Viva La Gong 2008

Thursday 9th to Sunday 12th October

This festival will be held from Thursday to Sunday 9th - 12th October 2008. If you are interested in having a stall to sell your craft or artwork, please contact Rae Heaton, Kerry Butt or Judy Bourke to let us know how many stall spaces we will have. We hope to have good support by ican members from everywhere. You do not have to be an ican member to have a stall. You do not have to live in Wollongong to have a stall.

The stalls are being organised by the CAF (E) 4 group and not by ican.

The theme is flight. The organising committee is looking for less literal expressions of flight, like flights of fantasy or spiritual flight, like taking off on your wooden horse or something.....

Applications have been sent out. Hope to hear from you soon.
