Inclusion on ICAN's website

Members Only! Artists Listing on the Internet.

Have you checked out our ICAN website lately?

Check out www.ican.asn.au for information on our organisation, useful links, past newsletters and –most importantly- our artist listing.

Several Members have their works and a brief text about their work already included on the website. Check out the Artists A-Z section to see images of their works.

In a few weeks we will have included even more artists and their works. The works of these artists were photographed at last photo session at Clifton School of Arts, which took place at the end of last year.

- If you already have a listing online, please check if it is still up to date.
- If you would like to be included with your work in the artists listing, please write a brief bio and email up to 5 images of your works.
- Please try to supply images under 2MB in size. The text can be written in an email, or a Word file, that you attach to an email.

Email all images, your contact details and the text to mail@bettinakaiser.com .

I will email you a document back, which you will need to print out and return with your signature, to accept your work being posted on the ICAN website and to let us know which contact information you would like to have displayed.

Thank YOU!

Here is to a strong ICAN web presence!
